

Surely The Presence of the Lord is in This Place

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place.

I can feel His mighty power- and His grace---

I can hear the brush of an-gel's wings,

I see glo—ry on each face.

Sure-ly the presence of the Lord is in this place.

Gent-ly your gracious love regenerates
our race,

Changing hearts of those who come within this place.

Holding out the hope of life renewed, bringing joy upon each face, Thank you Lord, your precious love is surely present in this place

Now Lord, we pray you make of us a gracious place,
Using us to spread the message of you grace.

Take our hands and feet, our hearts and souls, the looks upon each face, Then tell the world in which we live of the wonders of this place.

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place.

I can feel His mighty power- and His grace---

I can hear the brush of an-gel's wings,

I see glo—ry on each face.

Sure-ly the presence of the Lord is in this place.
