9 a.m. Choral Eucharist, Rite II
11:15 a.m. The Holy Eucharist, Rite II with Hymns

Welcome! We are pleased to have you with us today. We would like to do all we can to help you participate in the service; if you have questions, please ask an usher or the person next to you. The hymns are generally found in the blue Hymnal 1982 in the pew rack. This bulletin includes most everything else needed for our worship. We want you to know, however, that there is no right or wrong way to worship, and your presence with us and before God is what really matters.

Prelude: Voluntary – Toccata in d (BWV 565)

J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

At the Procession: Hymn 665 Please stand “All my hope” Michael

All remain standing as the Celebrant says

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant says the Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All sit.

The First Lesson: Jeremiah 14:7-10, 19-22

Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O Lord, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you. O hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night? Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O Lord, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us! Thus says the Lord concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the Lord does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead. We acknowledge our wickedness, O Lord, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you. Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonor your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us. Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O Lord our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

At the Gradual: Psalm 84:1-6 Quam dilecta!

Antiphon:

O Lord of hosts, hap-py are they who put their trust in you.

Chant:

How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of / hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living / God.

The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her / young; *
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my / God.

Happy are they who dwell in your / house! * they will always be / praising you.

Happy are the people whose strength is / in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' / way.

Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of / springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of / water.

They will climb from height to / height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in / Zion.

The antiphon is repeated.

The Second Lesson: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

At the Sequence: Alleluia Verse

Tone VI

First sung by the cantor, then repeated by all:

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu ia.

Cantor: Your love, O Lord, for ever will / I sing; *

People: *from age to age my mouth will pro - / claim your faithfulness.
Alleluia.*

The Holy Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

At the 9:00 Service: The Children’s Sermon Please sit The Rev. Peggy Bernhard

The Sermon Please sit The Rev. Peggy Bernhard

The Nicene Creed

All stand.

*We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation*

*he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

The Prayers of the People (from Intercessions for the Christian People)

Deacon Grateful for our blessings, determined in our mission, expectant for fulfillment, let the Church cry out to God, saying: Lord, have mercy.

Asst. For faithfulness, that we trust in God’s promise and live in confident obedience, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon For openness in reaching out to all for the people of the world, that together we may walk out of darkness into God’s light, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, have mercy.

Asst. For humility, that we glory only in God’s forgiving, generous love, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon For perseverance, that we may daily seek out all who are hurt and cry are in need, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, have mercy.

Asst. For comfort for all those in any need; for health for the sick and food for the hungry; (for ____;) that, touched by God, they may shine with the brilliance of God’s light, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, have mercy.
Here other intercessions may be offered.

Deacon Blessed are all those who have fought the good fight and now share in the wondrous vision God promised from the beginning. That we may keep them always in our sight, eager for the day of our joyous reunion, let us pray to the Lord.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon O God, you make glad the hearts of all who dwell in your house. Accept our gratitude, enjoy our praise, and save us. Grant the fulfillment of our prayers through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Deacon then says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please kneel.

Ministers and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Liturgy of the Holy Communion

At the 9:00 Offertory: Anthem
“O how amiable”

Ralph Vaughan Williams 1872-1958

O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: They will be alway praising thee. The glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handywork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.
--Words taken from psalms 84 and 90; Myles J. Criss, organ

At the 11:15 Offertory: Hymn 517

*Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer 3 (from Enriching Our Worship)
All remain standing.

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey;

And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

Sanctus/Benedictus

Richard Proulx

Please stand or kneel.

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Presider and People

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The Presider continues

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed _____, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Presider and People
Blessed are you now and for ever.

And now, as our Savior
Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept. The Celebrant then sings

Richard Proulx

The Celebrant says
The Gifts of God for the People of God.
All are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

At the 9:00 Communion: Hymn 517
“How lovely is thy dwelling place”

Brother James’ Air

At the 9:00 Communion: Hymn 313 “Let thy Blood” Jesus, meine Zuversicht

After Communion, the Celebrant says
Let us pray.

The Celebrant and People together say Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Postcommunion Hymn: 636 Please stand “How firm a foundation” Foundation

The consecrated Sacrament is given to each Eucharistic minister who takes the Holy Communion to those homebound or in the hospital.

The Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the people, saying
The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God.

Fr. Simon is at home retiling the bathroom all this week.

That's My Farmer: Last chance to buy coupon books or to make a contribution in support of local farmers and low-income coupon recipients. You can help others enjoy fresh, locally grown food. Come to Simpson Hall today!

We invite the young and young-at-heart to come to church in costume today! We hope to see princesses, space creatures, ladybugs and maybe a wolf in sheep's clothing. We'll talk about All Hallows' Eve and what it means for the Church. After the 9:00 service, there will be activities for the younger children in Room 9/10.

Good Samaritan School will use our October designated offering funds for scholarships. The school offers preschool and kindergarten classes. Fund-raisers during the year help keep tuition low. All monies raised from special giving and fund-raisers help pay for scholarships. It's hoped enough money can be raised to meet at least 50 percent of the requests, which are granted based on need. Use the designated offering envelope in the pew rack.

Adult Forum today: All are welcome to join us at 10:15 a.m. in the lounge. We have as our guests Debbie and Don Lauer. Debbie is a master gardener, and does volunteer work for the Oregon State University Extension Service. In their presentation, "Composting: the Ultimate Recycle," the Lauers will explain and teach several ways to compost kitchen and yard waste, removing significant volume from the waste stream, and saving resources. They will also discuss and teach what to do with the compost, and how composting benefits the soil and, therefore, the environment. Next Sunday, Fr. Simon will join us as a discussion leader on a topic of his choice.

The deadline for next Sunday's bulletin is noon Tuesday.

October – colorful trees, pumpkins, football and cooler nights tell us fall is here. And the Casserole Connection is here too! We are available to help anyone in the parish who could use the support of a main dish because of special need. This month, please call Shirley Pearson at 754.1308. She'll be happy to make arrangements.

Cynthia Rodriguez will soon take on scheduling of acolytes. Acolytes and their parents are asked to contact Cynthia with any conflicts of dates between December and February. Cynthia's phone is 745.5411, and her e-mail is cdrodriguez@comcast.net “Cleveland Rocks!” FOURTH SUNDAYS AT FOUR will present Douglas Cleveland, organist, at 4 p.m. today. Internationally acclaimed, Doug is a sixth-generation Washingtonian. He has studied at the Eastman School of Music, Indiana University and Oxford University. His teachers have included Russell Saunders, Larry Smith and Marilyn Keiser. Doug gained international prominence when he won first prize in the 1994 American Guild of Organists National Young Artists Competition. The concert is free and open to all; donations to support the series will be accepted.

Monday Morning Bible Study: The 23rd Sunday after Pentecost – Jeremiah 14:7-10, 19-22, Psalm 84:1-6, 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18; Luke 18:9-14.

Prayers for Peace: An Evening of Contemplative Prayer is set for 5 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at United Campus Ministry at Westminster House, at Monroe Avenue and 23rd Street. Participants may drop in at any time. Move through a series of prayer stations, engaging contemplatively and experientially in prayer through art, stillness, writing, music and quiet listening. Choose your own pace, and engage in the stations of your choice. Come connect with the Sacred while offering prayers of peace for the world, humanity and yourself. This event is open to all. For more information, contact the Rev. Leah McCullough at revleah@comcast.net or 753.2242.

A program on healthcare reform will take place at 7 p.m. this Tuesday at the Corvallis-Benton County Public Library, Sixth Street and Monroe Avenue. Participants will see “Salud,” a fascinating film on how Cuba provides universal healthcare for its citizens. Local physicians will also discuss primary care as the foundation of a healthy citizenry for US society. The event is sponsored by Physician Advocates for Sensible Healthcare in Oregon and the Nation, and other local groups. Questions? Call Edie Orner at 926.5989.

This Friday is the Feast of All Souls. We will offer a Choral Requiem Eucharist at 7 p.m. that day. At this service we will remember departed loved ones, especially those who have died this last year. You'll have the opportunity to light a candle in memory of deceased loved ones. It will be beautiful and moving. All are urged to participate.

“Creating a Heart for Peace,” “Tools for Transformation,” “Iconography,” “Matthew” – a few of the workshops available to anyone at no cost at the Mission and Ministry Fair, set for 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Nov. 10 at the Salem Convention Center. Descriptions and registration forms are in yellow booklets outside the office.

Oregon Interfaith Power and Light, a project of Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon, will present workshops this Saturday at Atonement Lutheran Church, Newport. They are “Save Your Congregation Energy and Money,” from 9:30 a.m. to noon, and “Energy Stewardship” from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The first session will cover energy stewardship for congregations, low-cost measures to save expenses, and funding energy-efficiency projects. Afternoon topics include reducing energy costs for homes and businesses, affordable renewable energy options, and ethics of energy stewardship. The keynote speaker will be Doug Boleyn, who has 30 years’ experience in renewable energy. In the afternoon, a couple will talk about efficiency gained in updating their house. Call 503.221.1054, Ext. 203 to register. Cost is $20 per workshop, or $35 for both. Lunch provided at each workshop for $8.

Reminders...Please return pledge cards by next Sunday, if possible, and mark your calendar for breakfast at Good Sam on Pledge Sunday, also that day. All are invited to breakfast after the 8:00 and 9:00 services. (All you 11:15 folks, please come to breakfast before your service.) Also, just a thought: If we each increased our 2008 pledge by 10 percent, we’d be able to add a half-time associate rector (and youth group director) to our staff. – The Stewardship Committee

I’m going on vacation! I’ll leave Nov. 9, and return to the office Dec. 3. Things will be a little different here during that time; Sunday bulletins will be a little more spare. Our resplendent rota of regular receptionists will cover the office during their regular shifts, but we could use more volunteer receptionists to flesh out the schedule. If you’re interested, please call me during the week at 757.6647. Thanks! – Jane Stoltz

The annual Boy Scouts Door-to-Door Food Drive will take place from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Nov. 10. Scouts will place bags on porches in Corvallis and Philomath the week prior to the drive. Scouts and other service groups will collect food and cash donations. Volunteers will pack holiday food boxes the following week. Types of food needed include canned fruits, vegetables, milk and meats; peanut butter; stuffing, gelatin and cake mixes; baby foods; and fresh fruits and vegetables. No home-canned goods can be accepted.

Those who have served our country in wars will be remembered by “Songs and Words of the Wars” on Veteran’s Day, Nov. 11. Performances are set for 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. in Corvallis High School’s theater, Northwest 11th Street and Buchanan Avenue. The show is a production of the CHS Fine Arts Department. Featured are the CHS choir, the Corvallis Community Band, the Hilltop Big Band, and soloists. The show, written and produced by Robert Mix, includes history, music, poetry and humor. Admission is $7 for adults, $6 for those 65 and over, or $3 for students. Tickets go on sale this Thursday at Rice’s Pharmacy. Proceeds go to the Corvallis Public Schools Foundation. For information, call Robert Mix, 753.5259.

The Good Sam Bookworms are reading “Gilead” by Marilynne Robinson, the winner of the 2005 Pulitzer Prize. The discussion will take place at 6 p.m. Nov. 15 in the library. Incidentally, the Bookworms is not a “chick only” club. Books are available in the parish office.
