10 a.m. Choral Eucharist, Rite II

Welcome! We are pleased to have you with us today. We would like to do all we can to help you participate in the service; if you have questions, please ask an usher or the person next to you. The hymns are generally found in the blue Hymnal 1982 in the pew rack. This bulletin includes most everything else needed for our worship. We want you to know, however, that there is no right or wrong way to worship, and your presence with us and before God is what really matters.

Prelude: Anthem – “I Will Celebrate”

Rita Baloché

*I will celebrate, sing unto the Lord, sing to the Lord a new song.
With my heart rejoicing within, with my mind focused on Him, with my hands raised to the heavens, all I am, worshiping Him.*

--Psalm 96:1, Psalm 149:1

Anthem – “Come to the Water”

John Foley

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without price. Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord? And let all who seek, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without strife. Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord? And let all who toil, let them come to the water. And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord: all who labor without rest. How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord? And let all the poor, let them come to the water. Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord: bring the children without might. Easy the load and light: Come to the Lord.

--Suggested by Isaiah 55:1,2; Matthew 11:28-30

Anthem – “Come, Now Is the Time to Worship”

Brian Doerksen

*Come, now is the time to worship. Come, now is the time to give your heart.
Come, just as you are, to worship. Come, just as you are, before your God.
One day ev'ry tongue will confess You are God. One day ev'ry knee will bow.
Still the greatest treasure remains for those who gladly choose You now.*

--The Contemporary Eucharist Music Team

At the Procession: Hymn 618 “Ye watchers and ye holy ones” Lasst uns erfreuen

All remain standing as the Celebrant says

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

All say the Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise: “Gloria”

Mike Anderson

Gloria in excelsis Deo. Lord God, heavenly King, peace you bring to us; we worship you, we give you thanks, we sing our song of praise. Jesus, Savior of all, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away our sins, oh Lord, have mercy on us all. At the Father’s right hand, Lord, receive our prayer, for you alone are the Holy One, and you alone are the Lord. Glory, Father and Son, Glory, Holy Spirit, to you we raise our hands up high, we glorify your name.

--The Contemporary Eucharist Music Team

A Collect for Episcopal Schools

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

God of knowledge and wisdom, we pray to you for all the schools across this country, which are part of the Episcopal Church. We remember them in their variety, in their differences, and in what they share. Give us open doors, open minds, and open hearts, that we might accept, learn and love everything and everyone whom you have given us. Help us to share our lives and what we have, and to learn from all those who are in school with us. We pray in the name of Jesus, who opened his arms to all, young and old. Amen.

The New Testament Lesson: James 3:13-18

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

At the Gradual: Hymn 423 Please stand “Immortal, invisible” St. Denio

The Holy Gospel: Mark 9:33-37

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, ‘What were you arguing about on the way?’ But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, ‘Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.’ Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon Please sit

Deacon Lance Peeler and Mary Eads

The Apostles’ Creed

Officiant and People together, all standing

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessions written and presented by the Good Samaritan School First and Second Grade Classes

Celebrant

Christ calls us to a life of peace and humility. Let us pray for strength to live this baptized life, saying: Lord, have mercy.

Leader For our church, and churches everywhere,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For all people in the world,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For those who build homes after storms,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For farms and orchards,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For the hungry and the people who help ease their hunger,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For all soldiers fighting in wars, and their families,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For children who are cold, and the friends who work to bring them warmth,
People Lord, have mercy.

Leader For our community and the communities that surround us,
People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant
Receive us, O God, as you received the child in Capernaum, for we yearn for your mercy, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Announcements

Please sit.

The Liturgy of the Holy Communion

At the Offertory: “Jesus, You’re the Light” Doug Marts

Jesus, You’re the light in my life. Come shine in me so that others will see You are the light of the world. Help me shine Your light to my friends. They need to know that You love them so.

--Good Samaritan School Students

At the Presentation: Doxology Please stand

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise him, all creatures here below;

Praise him above, ye heavenly host:

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Old 100th

The Great Thanksgiving: Form 1

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant gives thanks to God the Father for his work in creation and his revelation of himself to his people.

And so we join the saints and angels in proclaiming your glory, as we sing

Sanctus/Benedictus

Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high-est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high- est.

The Celebrant now praises God for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ our Lord. The Prayer continues with these words

And so, Father, we bring you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

The Celebrant says
The Gifts of God for the People of God.
All are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

Communion of the Faithful

At the Communion: Anthem – “Love the Lord” Austin C. Lovelace
Love the Lord with all your heart. Love the Lord and love each other.
I will love the Lord with all my heart. Love the Lord with all your soul.
Love the Lord with all your being. I will love the Lord with all my soul.
Seek the Lord with all your mind. In God’s Word His Truth I find.
I will seek the Lord with all my mind. Serve the Lord with all your strength.
Heart and soul and mind and strength, I will love the Lord with all I am.
-- The Seraphim Choir; Laura Relyea, director

Anthem – “A Prayer of St. Richard of Chichester” L.J. White
O holy Jesu, most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, and follow thee more nearly. Amen.
--The Laudamus Choir; Laura Relyea, director

Anthem – “Let all mortal flesh keep silence” (Picardy) Gustav Holst (1874-1934)
See The Hymnal 1982, No. 324 for the text.

At the Communion: Hymn 671 “Amazing grace!” New Britain
Requested by Gail Stein

After Communion, the Celebrant says
Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The consecrated Sacrament is given to each Eucharistic minister who takes the Holy Communion to those homebound or in the hospital.

The Blessing
The priest blesses the people

Closing Anthem: "Shine, Jesus, Shine"

Graham Kendrick

Lord, the light of Your love is shining, in the midst of the darkness shining; Jesus, light of the world, shine upon us; set us free by the truth You now bring us. Shine on me. Shine, Jesus, shine, fill this land with the Father's glory; blaze, Spirit, blaze, set our hearts on fire. Flow, river, flow, flood the nations with grace and mercy; send forth Your Word, Lord, and let there be light. Lord, I come to Your awesome presence, from the shadows into Your radiance; by the blood I may enter Your brightness, search me, try me, consume all my darkness, shine on me. As we gaze on Your kingly brightness, so our faces display Your likeness; ever changing from glory to glory, mirrored here may our lives tell Your story, shine on me.

--The Contemporary Eucharist Music Team

Call the parish office to place names or concerns on the daily prayer list. Call Pat Wohlwend, 754.0740, to place names or concerns on the prayer chain; if someone is in the hospital; or if you have other pastoral concerns.

The Good Samaritan School Scholarship Fund will receive our October designated offering. Please use the designated offering envelope in the pew rack.

The Outreach Committee wants to thank the Sunday School and the Episcopal Churchwomen for their help in their recent bake sale, as well as all of you who purchased the goodies. Sunday School raised $110.50; ECW and Outreach raised $413. This was a tremendous effort. You got to eat some delightful goodies while possibly saving an African child from malaria. We will be able to purchase approximately 44 mosquito nets ($12 per net) in Episcopal Relief and Development's Nets for Life and diocesan project for this year.

The Stewardship Committee is pleased to announce that 34 pledges have been received (as of the bulletin deadline) for a total of $97,500. Thanks to those who have returned their pledge cards. Please mail pledge cards, place them in the Sunday offering, or put them in the pledge box on the counter by the parish office.

Bishop's Blend Coffee: Be sure to sign up on the parish bulletin board for October/November orders, indicating the type of coffee you want to order. Cost is $10 per package, which includes a donation to Episcopal Relief and Development.

Reminder: We would be delighted were you to nominate someone (or yourself) to stand for election to the vestry. Please pass suggestions along to Bill Becker, at either 752.8240 or bwjfbecker@hotmail.com.

Help needed: We would like to have several substitute ushers for the 8:00 service. Also needed are volunteers to help with coffee hour after the 8:00 service. Call Sandy Potter (753.2709) or Dale Barnecott (754.1495).

Jamming for the Hungry: Make jams and jellies for food banks! Pick and donate local fruit, or donate canning jars (half-pint, pint size; quarts can be used for another project), jar lids and rings, sugar, Splenda, no-sugar-needed pectin, fruit (preferably washed and frozen in one-quart bags), apple juice or white grape juice, or money for the commercial food license. Or you and some friends can schedule a "jam session!" This is a project of That's My Farmer, local churches and Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon. For information, call Sara Power, 929.7034, or Sandy Potter, 753.2709.

This is a good time to buy a niche in the columbarium. Due to rising costs, the Good Samaritan Church Foundation has to increase the price to $850 as of Dec. 15. You can buy a space for $600 till then. Call Dale Barnecott at 754.1495 if interested. Depending on your circumstances, $300 of the cost may be tax-deductible. Your tax advisor can tell you if you qualify.

We are looking for two people willing to become acolytes for the 8:00 service. These two people would enable David Barnecott to take some vacations and worship from the congregation. Commitment would be one Sunday per month. Please contact Cynthia Rodriguez, 745.5411 or cdrodriguez@comcast.net

The Sunday School will be having its Halloween party in Simpson Hall today in place of regular classes. This fun event is for all members of the congregation, and will include activities, crafts and treats!

The Casserole Connection remains on duty for anyone in the parish who needs support during an illness or any other special need. Call Shirley Pearson, 754.1308.

Contemporary Service: Music begins in the lounge at 10:15 a.m. each Sunday, with the service following at 10:30 a.m.

A new class for newcomers and those with questions about the Episcopal Church will begin today and run for four weeks. “Episcopal Church 101” will meet in the library from 11:15 a.m. to noon. We’ll take brief looks at the history of the Episcopal Church, the Anglican ethos, the Book of Common Prayer, and the sacraments.

Adult Forum today: Max Power will take about nuclear waste issues. The forum meets Sundays at 11:15 a.m. in the lounge, and is open to everyone.

SUNDAYS AT FOUR presents “Sunday Jazz” at 4 p.m. today in Simpson Hall. Performers will be Andre St. James, Barbara Lusch, Fred Berman, Gordon Lee and Ron Leach. Featured composers include George Gershwin, Vince Guaraldi and others.

Monday Morning Bible Study: All Saints’ Sunday – Revelation 7:9-17; Psalm 34:1-10, 22; I John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12.

The deadline for next Sunday’s bulletin is noon Tuesday.

A Requiem Eucharist is set for 7 p.m. this Wednesday in the church to mark the occasion of the Feast of All Souls.

Writing’s been shown to have health benefits. It can identify feelings, lift a mood, empower, and reduce pain. Linda Gelbrich will offer a relaxed four-week class, “Writing for Health,” beginning this Wednesday at the Heartspring Wellness Center, 990 NW Circle Blvd. It meets from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.; cost is $75. Pre-registration is available at 768.6412. To learn more, call Linda at 754.7198.

Next Sunday we will welcome Audrey Jean Clunes to the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism at the 10:00 service.

“From Surviving to Thriving” will meet 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesdays, starting Nov. 11, in the Samaritan Regional Cancer Center library. This six-week series is for anyone who’s had cancer, or is caring for someone with cancer. The Good Sam Hospital Foundation has funded the series, so there is no cost. Enjoy relaxing activities by artists, and conversation geared to celebrating life and moving beyond cancer. It is facilitated by Linda Gelbrich, licensed clinical social worker.

We need help with the Heart of the Valley Health Care Center service. Services are at 3:30 p.m. the first and third Tuesdays of the month. The time commitment is about 90 minutes. Duties include bringing residents to the service, singing hymns, helping with responses, chatting with friends. Talk to Barbara Black for information.

The next Taizé prayer service will be held at 7 p.m. next Sunday here at the Church of the Good Samaritan. This ecumenical service includes meditative singing, short readings and a quiet time for corporate and private prayer. The services are held on the first Sunday of the month, and are led by the Corvallis Taizé Ensemble. Everyone is welcome! If you have any questions, or are interested in joining the ensemble as a reader, singer or instrumentalist, please call Craig Massie at 753.7622.

A new Bible study will start at 6 p.m. Nov. 5 in the library. For the rest of 2008, the class will be theme-based, focusing on the coming Sunday's Gospel. The class will run till 6:45 p.m., followed by Evening Prayer in the chapel from 6:45 p.m. to 7 p.m. Richard Halter will lead the class. If you have questions, please call Richard, 740.5970. The lesson plan follows: Nov. 5, "Things We Must Do For Ourselves," Matthew 25:1-13; Nov. 12, "To Those Who Have, More Will Be Given," Matthew 25:14-30; Nov. 19, "Getting Ready to Begin Again," Matthew 25:31-46; Nov. 26, no class – Thanksgiving; Advent Series: "Keep Awake" – Dec. 3, Mark 1:1-8; Dec. 10, John 1:6-8, 19-28; Dec. 17, Luke 1:26-38; Dec. 24 and 31, no class.

Reach into the Magic Barrel and pull out a story, a poem, a true adventure. The Majestic Theatre will barely be able to contain the artistry of this event. A rousing evening of live literature, "The Magic Barrel: A Reading to Fight Hunger," comes to the Majestic Theatre at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 7. Eight Oregon authors will share their works in a benefit for Linn-Benton Food Share to help relieve hunger in the mid-Willamette Valley. This year's Magic Barrel features novelist Molly Gloss, who filled the Corvallis Arts Center in June for a reading from her book "The Hearts of Horses;" poet and essayist John Daniel (Rogue River Journal); and fiction writer Ehud Havazelet, whose latest book, "Bearing the Body," is a finalist for the Oregon Book Award. Short story writer Susan Jackson Rodgers, who has just joined the faculty of the Oregon State University English Department's creative writing program, will make her Corvallis debut. Other readers include novelist John Addiego, poets Eric Dickey and Marilyn Johnston, and nonfiction writer and Paul Vandevelder ("Coyote Warrior"). Peter Sears will be master of ceremonies. "The Magic Barrel is always fast-paced," said Charles Goodrich, a member of the organizing committee. Live music will start a half-hour before the show and continue afterward, with complimentary beverages and desserts from local restaurants. Grass Roots Books and Music will be on hand with autographed books. Admission is a suggested donation of $7 at the door, but no one is turned away for lack of funds. All proceeds will be donated to Food Share for local hunger relief. For every dollar raised, Food Share will distribute up to 15 pounds of food to the hungry. Now in its 15th year, the Magic Barrel is named after the short story collection the great American writer Bernard Malamud wrote while living in Corvallis and teaching in the OSU English Department. The event is co-sponsored by the OSU Center for the Humanities. Information, call Charles Goodrich at 737.6198, or visit www.magicbarrel.org

Lance and Stacie Peeler will be hosting a gathering for young families at their home from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Nov. 15. We'll have a pre-Thanksgiving feast, and ask that families bring a favorite holiday side dish. Turkey and/or ham provided. Childcare will be available. To ask questions or RSVP, please call 753.1576.
