Call to Prayer

Clergy: Blessed is our God, always, now and for ever and to the ages of ages.

People: Amen.

*Hear us, O never failing Light,
Lord God, our only Light, the Fountain of Light,
the Light of your angels, thrones, dominions,
principalities, powers, and all the beings of this world;
you have created the light of your saints,
the bright cloud of witnesses around us.
May our souls be your lamps, kindled and illumined by you.
May they shine and burn your truth,
and never go out in darkness and ashes.
May we be your dwelling, shining from you, shining in you;
may we shine and your light never fail;
may we worship you always.
May we be kindled brightly and never extinguished.
Being filled with Christ’s splendor,
may we shine within, so that the gloom of sin is cleared away,
and the light of everlasting life abides within us. Amen.*
(Ancient Mozarabic prayer)

Trisagion S102 Hymnal

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

The First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-9

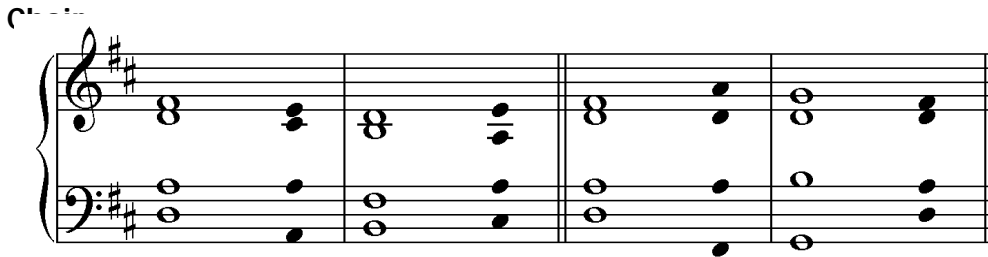

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

At the Gradual: Psalm 130
Everyone sings the Antiphon:

De profundis

Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my / voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my suppli - / cation.

If you, Lord, were to note what is done a - / miss, *
O Lord, who could / stand?

For there is forgiveness / with you; * therefore you shall be / feared.

I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for / him; * in his word is my / hope.

My soul waits for the Lord, more than watchmen for the / morning, * more than watchmen for the / morning.

O Israel, wait for the / Lord, * for with the Lord there is / mercy;

Second half of chant:

With him there is plenteous re - / demption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their / sins.

The antiphon is repeated.

The Second Reading: I Thessalonians 4:13 - 18

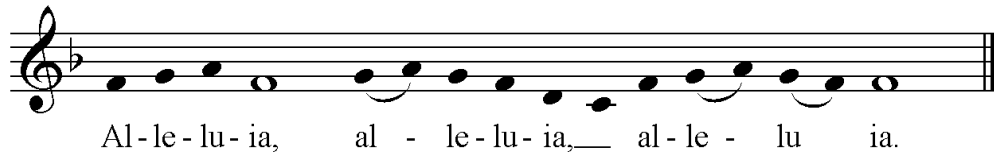

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

At the Sequence: Alleluia Verse Please stand
First sung by the cantor, then repeated by all:

Tone VI

Cantor: Come to me, all who labor and are heavy / laden, *

People: and / I will give you rest. Alleluia.

Clergy: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: John 5:24-27

Jesus said to the people, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life. Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man."

Clergy: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Homily: Reverend Simon Justice

In Thanksgiving for the Holy Ones of God and Our Dearly Departed

Clergy: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Clergy:

For Abraham and Sarah, our ancestors in faith, journeying into the unknown, yet trusting God's promises; for Moses the lawgiver and Aaron the priest, who led the people to freedom and the promised land; for Esther and Deborah, saviors of their nation, and for all who dare to act courageously at God's call; for Isaiah, John the Baptist and all the prophets, who spoke your truth no matter what the cost: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Clergy:

For Mary the Virgin, full of grace, called to be the mother of the Lord; for Andrew and John and the first disciples, who left all to follow Jesus; For Mary Magdalene, Salome and Mary, first witnesses of the resurrection, and for all who bear witness to Christ; for Peter and Paul and all the apostles, who preached the gospel to Jew and Gentile; for Stephen, Alban, Perpetua and the whole army of martyrs, who have faced death for the love of Christ: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Clergy:

For Augustine, Hilda and Aidan, Saint Margaret, Samuel Seabury, William White and all who have carried the gospel to this and other lands; for Aelred and Bernadette, and for all who live and teach the love of God; for Anselm and Richard Hooker, and for all who reveal to us the depths of God's wisdom; for Benedict, Francis and Clare, Teresa and Bede, and for all who deepen our common life in Christ; for Julian of Norwich, Hildegard, and for all who renew our vision of the mystery of God: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Clergy:

For Thomas Cranmer, Martin Luther and all who reform the Church of God; for Phoebe, Dorcus, Thomas More and all who hold firm to its continuing faith; for all who work to transform the world; for Monica, Elizabeth and for all who nurture faith in home and family: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Clergy:

For the martyrs and peacemakers of our own time, who shine as lights in the darkness; for all the unsung heroes of our faith, whose names are known to God alone; for all those in our own lives who have brought us to this time and place and shown to us the way of holiness: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Clergy:

For all our beloveds departed this life, whom we love but see no longer. May light perpetual shine upon them: Let us bless the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

A time of silent prayer follows. You are invited to come forward and light a candle in remembrance of a loved one who has died. We remember in particular all those listed. (Please see insert)

Anthem: “Humbly I adore thee”
(Good Samaritan Choir)

Adoro devote

Taizé Chant Repeat as needed, sung by all.

Bless the Lord, my soul and bless God’s holy Name;
Bless the Lord, my soul, who saves my soul from death.

Clergy: Let us pray for those who mourn; comfort them in their sorrow.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Clergy: Fill the emptiness in their hearts with the presence of your love.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Clergy: Increase their faith and strengthen their hope.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Clergy: Let us pray also for ourselves in our pilgrimage through life;
strengthen us and keep us faithful in your service.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Clergy: Fill our hearts with the hope for heaven.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Clergy:

O God, you have loved us into being. Hear our cries. Move us from the shadow of death into the light of your love and peace in the name of Mary’s child, Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Clergy: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Offertory Anthem: “Libera Me, Domine”

G. Faure
